

Wear both hats in WA's construction industry.

There are no limits to career development in WA's building and construction Industry. Enter with an apprenticeship and make a Cert III trade qualification your first goal.

It's then up to you to choose how you want to develop your career.

You can access further training to build your skills, qualifications and experience through short courses, Cert IV courses or even university degrees.

Visit www.nolimits.com.au to find out how you can build a flexible and rewarding career pathway in WA's building and construction industry.

